

Degrees:

B.A. - History - Stanford University, June 1964

M.S. - Economics - University of Wisconsin, January 1969

Ph.D. - Economics - University of Wisconsin, August 1970

Languages:

Spanish: Speaking, Reading, Writing (fluent)

German: Reading, some speaking

Portuguese: Reading, some speaking

Awards:

Georgescu-Roegen Prize for Best Article Published in the Southern Economic Journal, in 2015 (with Mauricio Caceres), November, 2015.

Community Service Award, 2001: Horizonte Instruction and Training Center, Salt Lake Community School Corporation, June 9, 2001

Distinguished Teaching Award, College of Social and Behavioral Science, University of Utah, Spring, 2000 (Finalist for the Award in 1999)

Fulbright Research/Lecturer Fellowship, Quito, Ecuador, June-September 1995

Mellon Research Fellowship, University of Texas-Austin, Summer 1986

Fulbright Research Fellowship in San Paulo, Brazil, 1984 (nominated but withdrew)

Office of Education Summer Research Stipend, Brazil (invited but declined)

NEH Fellowship, Summer Institute on Brazil, Taos, New Mexico, 1983

Reinhold Niebuhr Award for Social Justice, (co-recipient with Penny Brooke Jameson) University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana, 1982

Fulbright Senior Lectureship, 1974-1975: Universidad Nacional de San Agustin, Arequipa, Peru

First Place in the 1973 National Kazanjian Award in Economic Education (shared $1,000 with coauthors of the course "Economics and Methodology")

NSF, Ford Foundation and Comparative Tropical Economics Fellowships Winner, University of Wisconsin-Madison 1967-70

Phi Beta Kappa, Stanford University, 1964