CLASS MEETING TIME & PLACE: MW 11:50–1:10pm, Gardner Commons room 4150.

Old exams and their answers, and other material, is available at the web site given above (click on “Econ. 7005”). In particular, the structure of the 7005 web site is:

- Syllabus
- Prerequisites and Handouts
  - Prerequisites for Econ. 7005
  - Optional: A more complete treatment of Sections 1–4 of “Prerequisites for Econ. 7005,” called “Notes for Econ. 7001.”
  - Handouts for Econ. 7005
- Homework Problems and Answers
- Old Exam Questions and Answers

A paper packet with all the “Old Exam Questions and Answers” will be prepared and made available for sale. It only contains copies of the web site’s “Old Exam Questions and Answers,” so the only students who will want to buy it are those who prefer to have a paper copy of the material instead of working from the internet.

The following books are not on reserve at the library. They are not required texts, and you do not have to read any of them. If you have difficulty understanding your textbook’s explanation of some topic, one of these books might help. However, since they are not on reserve, please do not check them out for a long time; one of your classmates may need the book too. The first book is an undergraduate text in mathematics for economists. (Its authors later added additional elementary material to the beginning, and additional advanced material to the end, and then divided the material into two books, but neither sort of additional material is particularly useful for most students in this course.) The second book (by Henderson & Quandt) is a treatment of the same microeconomic theory we cover. Its mathematical prerequisites are less than those of your textbook. The third book treats the same microeconomic theory we cover, plus much more. Its mathematical prerequisites are more than those of your textbook. The fourth book has some unusual approaches to this material, and is rather short. The last book treats the same theory we cover in a slightly more mathematical way.

1. Essential Mathematics for Economic Analysis, by Knut Sydsæter and Peter J. Hammond; and its continuation,

GRADING: There will be a one-hour-long in-class midterm exam on Chapters 7–9, worth 33 points, and a two-hour-long in-class comprehensive final exam worth 67 points. You will be allowed to bring some notes with you during the exams. At the end of the semester, your course grade will be based on the sum of the grades you have made on the two exams.

OFFICE HOURS: MW 11:15–11:45am. You may also make an appointment to see me. In addition, you can stop by my office without an appointment at any time, and if I am not being pressured by other work I will make time then to answer your questions.

COURSE POLICIES: Academic dishonesty, such as using disallowed materials to help you answer exam questions, may lead to severe penalties.

If you miss an exam, for example because of illness, get in touch with me as soon as possible to make other arrangements.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE:

Chapters
8/19, 8/21, 8/26, 8/28: 7 (omit 7.5), 8 (omit 8.5, 8.9, 8.10, 8.11)

9/18, 9/23, 9/25, 9/30: midterm, 2 (omit 2.5, 2.6), 3
10/2, 10/14, 10/16, 10/21: 4 (omit 4.5) 5
11/6, 11/11, 11/13, 11/18: continue 17.1–5; 18.1–18.10 except 18.6 and 18.7
11/20, 11/25: 10.1–10.6 except 10.4
11/27: 13.6–13.9, 17.6, 17.7, 17.9
12/2: 21.1, 21.4, 18.6, 18.7

Friday Dec. 13, 2019: Final Exam from 10:30am–12:30pm.
COURSE OBJECTIVES:

As British economist Joan Robinson once wrote (Collected Economic Papers, 1980, Vol. 2 p. 17):

“The purpose of studying economics is not to acquire a set of ready-made answers to economic questions, but to learn how to avoid being deceived by economists.”

Accordingly, one objective is to demystify neoclassical economics by thoroughly understanding it. This class covers competitive consumer theory, competitive theory of the firm, and competitive general equilibrium (positive and normative). Next semester’s continuation will cover imperfect competition.

Perhaps ironically, once you have learned this material’s proper, limited context, you may well find some of it, or at least the mathematics it uses, useful in your own future research.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

EMERGENCY INFORMATION: If you receive a notification to evacuate during this class either by the campus text alert system or by a building fire alarm, please proceed in an orderly fashion to the Emergency Assembly Point (“EAP”) marked “A1” on the map later in this document. If you cannot reach the A5 EAP, go to the A5 EAP; if you cannot reach it either, go to the A4 EAP. Once everyone is at the EAP, you will receive further instructions from Emergency Management personnel. If you are taking an exam when the evacuation order comes, immediately stop working on the exam and leave the exam, your answers to it, and any other exam material on your desk.

For further information about the Campus Alert System, including instructions to ensure your cell phone will receive emergency alerts, see http://www.campusalert.utah.edu. That web site has a link to a “Shots Fired” training video which “discusses some things that any student, faculty, staff or administrator can do to perhaps prevent a fatal shooting.” To see the video, you have to be connected to the internet via a U of U network (for example, UConnect WiFi or a campus computer lab).

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES STATEMENT: The University of Utah seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services and activities for people with disabilities. If you will need accommodations in the class, reasonable prior notice needs to be given to the Center for Disability Services, 162 Union Building, (801) 581-5020 (V/TDD). CDS will work with you and the instructor to make arrangements for accommodations. All written information in this course can be made available in an alternative format with prior notification to the Center for Disability Services.
ADDRESSING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT: Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender (which includes sexual orientation and gender identity/expression) is a civil rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability, and victims are entitled to the same kinds of support, as in the cases of offenses against persons in other protected categories such as race, national origin, color, religion, age, status as a person with a disability, veteran’s status or genetic makeup. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you are encouraged to report it to the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, 135 Park Building, 801-581-8365, or the Office of the Dean of Students, 270 Union Building, 801-581-7066. For support and confidential consultation, contact the Center for Student Wellness, SSB 328, 801-581-7776. To report to the police, contact the Department of Public Safety, 801-585-2677(COPS).

CAMPUS SAFETY: The University of Utah values the safety of all campus community members. To report suspicious activity, call campus police at 801-585-COPS (801-585-2677). You will receive important emergency alerts and safety messages regarding campus safety via text message. For more information regarding safety and to view available training resources, including helpful videos, visit safeu.utah.edu. In cases of domestic violence or the threat of domestic violence (including intimate partner danger in a dating relationship), another source of assistance is the Utah Domestic Violence Coalition, whose phone number is 800-897-5465. (Inclusion of the previous sentence in U of U syllabi was recommended by Washington State University Prof. Jill McCluskey, whose daughter was a U of U student murdered on the U campus in 2018 by a man she had dated.)

WELLNESS STATEMENT: Personal concerns such as illness, stress, anxiety, relationship difficulties, and depression can interfere with a student’s ability to succeed at the University of Utah. For helpful resources contact the Center for Student Wellness at www.wellness.utah.edu or 801-581-7776.

OTHER SYLLABUS SECTIONS MANDATED BY THE UNIVERSITY:

Course description. See https://catalog.utah.edu/#!/courses/E1eAZekSRb?bc=ture&bcCurrent=Microeconomic%20Theory%20I&bcItemType=Courses.

Content overview. See the course objectives above.

Teaching and Learning Methods. Lectures and working homework problems and old exam questions.

Academic code of conduct. All students are expected to maintain professional behavior in the classroom setting, according to the Student Code, available at www.regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-400.html. Students have specific rights in the classroom as detailed in Section II of the Code. The Code also specifies proscribed conduct (Sections III and V) that involves cheating on tests, plagiarism, and/or collusion, as well as fraud, theft, etc. Students should read the Code carefully and know they are responsible for the content. Students have the right to appeal sanctions imposed under the Code to the Student Behavior Committee.

My responsibilities. See www.regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-316.html.

Canvas. We will not be using Canvas in this class. See the web site at the URL near the top of page 1 for more information.

Attendance policy. None. (Obviously, though, attending class will help you learn the material.)

Late assignments. This class has no mandatory assignments.

BUILDING EVACUATION

EAP (Emergency Assembly Point) – When you receive a notification to evacuate the building either by campus text alert system or by building fire alarm, please follow your instructor in an orderly fashion to the EAP marked on the map below. Once everyone is at the EAP, you will receive further instructions from Emergency Management personnel. You can also look up the EAP for any building you may be in on campus at http://emergencymanagement.utah.edu/eap.

CAMPUS RESOURCES

U Heads Up App: There’s an app for that. Download the app on your smartphone at alert.utah.edu/headsup to access the following resources:

- Emergency Response Guide: Provides instructions on how to handle any type of emergency, such as earthquake, utility failure, fire, active shooter, etc. Flip charts with this information are also available around campus.
- See Something, Say Something: Report unsafe or hazardous conditions on campus. If you see a life threatening or emergency situation, please call 911!

Safety Escorts: For students who are on campus at night or past business hours and would like an escort to your car, please call 801-585-2677. You can call 24/7 and a security officer will be sent to walk with you or give you a ride to your desired on-campus location.
